ReturntoBookPage.Madrid:LosLibrosdelaCatarata. Without you, I would have been lost somewhere in the race of life. When I came back home, I told members in our community about this service and they loved the idea. As I see it, we who are seeking to be more spiritual in our daily lives need merely to open our awareness to the love of our creator, which helps expand our self-love, and then generates our greater capacity to embrace others with compassion. There is a comforting thought, however, which is derived from the factor of modifiability, in that with each succeeding repetition, the task becomes easier, because the path becomes worn smoothly and the nervous current seeks it of its own accord; in other words, each act and each thought tends to become habitualized.
